Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia to Present Black History Month performance: *Through the Eyes of Coretta

Chesterfield, VA, February 15, 2022. The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia and Chesterfield Department of Parks and Recreation will present a historical performance in honor of Black History Month at Magnolia Grange House Museum on Saturday, February 26, at noon. Theresa Gee, a broadcast media professional, living history performer and storyteller will provide an insightful program on the life of this dynamic lady.

Through the Eyes of Coretta is a tender love story of Coretta Scott-King and her husband, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Beautifully portrayed by Tennessee native, Theresa Gee, Coretta tells the story of the civil rights movement from Mrs. King's perspective. You will meet Miss Scott when she is a young college student, rejoice with her through the triumphant Montgomery Bus Boycott, and travel with her to the March on Washington.

Reservations are required for this free presentation, as seating will be limited. To reserve a seat call Trevor Johnston, (804) 748-1498. Due to the COVID protocols, face masks are strongly encouraged, and social distancing will be in effect. Magnolia Grange is located at 10020 Iron Bridge Road, along Route 10/Ironbridge Road in Chesterfield.

The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization established in 1981. Its mission is to research and celebrate the history of Chesterfield County by collecting, preserving, interpreting and promoting the county's unique past for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.
