Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia to Present
Things to Know While Working on Your Family History

CHESTERFIELD, VA, July 1, 2022. The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia and Chesterfield County Department of Parks and Recreation will present a free lecture at the Chesterfield County Museum on Saturday, July 30, at 11:00 a.m. Angie Wilderman, Chair of Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia's Genealogy Committee, will present Things to Know While Working on Your Family History. She will discuss getting started, where to look for information and staying organized in your search for family history.

Reservations are required for this presentation, as space is limited. Reservations must be made at least a week in advance by calling the County Museum at 804-768-7311. The Museum is located at 6813 Mimms Loop, on the Historic Courthouse Green along Route 10/Iron Bridge Road in Chesterfield.

The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization established in 1981. Its mission is to research and celebrate the history of Chesterfield County by collecting, preserving, interpreting and promoting the county's unique past for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.
