Living History: For Fun and Profit Workshop offered in March

Chesterfield, VA, March 9, 2022 –The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia (CHSV) in partnership with the Chesterfield County Department of Parks and Recreation will offer a Living History workshop in March.

Living History: For Fun and Profit workshop will be held on Saturday, March 26 from 10 a.m.-12:30 p.m. at Historic Trinity Church, 10111 Iron Bridge Road. This workshop is geared for history lovers looking to gain guidance on how to become involved in the field of Living History Interpretation. Lamar Bannister, historian with decades of experience, will teach you steps for selecting time periods, developing your characters, building costumes, research and how to make agency contacts and as a volunteer. You will learn how to select artifacts, musical instruments, documents, market your programs, and more. Open to participants under the age of 18 accompanied by a parent/guardian at no extra fee. Cost $25.00 and includes Guide to Interpretation book. Registration and payment are required in advance for this workshop and space is limited.

For details or registration requirements call Bryan Truzzie, 751-4946 or truzieb@chesterfield.gov
