Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia to Present

Heirloom Tomatoes: A Taste of the Past

CHESTERFIELD, VA – The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia and Chesterfield County Department of Parks and Recreation will present a free lecture at the Chesterfield County Museum on Thursday, September 8, at 11 a.m.: Heirloom Tomatoes: A Taste of the Past. Learn about these colorful, flavorful treasures that are produced from seeds that have been passed down from generation to generation. Explore the history of the tomato and varieties such as Black Krim, Brandywine, and Mortgage Lifter. Learn about saving seeds, starting plants from seed, and the best practices for growing your own mouth-watering heirloom tomatoes.

Reservations are required for this presentation, as space is limited. Reservations must be made at least a week in advance by calling the County Museum at 804-768-7311. The Museum is located at 6813 Mimms Loop, on the Historic Courthouse Green along Route 10/Iron Bridge Road in Chesterfield.

The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization established in 1981. Its mission is to research and celebrate the history of Chesterfield County by collecting, preserving, interpreting, and promoting the county's unique past for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.
