

2025 Winter Lecture Series

presented by the Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia

All lectures will take place at 6:00pm

Beulah Recreation Center

6901 Hopkins Road; N. Chesterfield, VA 23234 EXCEPT for February 21st!*

Admission is free for Historical Society members and $5 for non-members. Contact information:
email: admin@chesterfieldhistory.com; call 804-796-7121; or visit: www.chesterfieldhistory.com

January 10

Jessica Schneider

Board of Supervisors, Clover Hill District

Preserving and Promoting Chesterfield's Rich History

Ms. Schneider, local County official and ardent supporter of history, will kick-off our lecture series by sharing why preserving and promoting history matters to our community.

January 24

Robert M. (Bert) Dunkerly

Author and Park Ranger

Richmond National Battlefield

Chesterfield County and The Yorktown Campaign (also known as the Virginia Campaign) As we prepare to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution, Mr. Dunkerly will share the role Chesterfield played in this historic and pivotal military event.

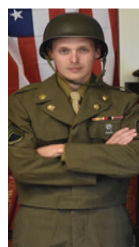

February 7

Debbie Phillips

Author and Historic Interpreter

Martha & George: A Love Story

February is the month of love and Ms. Phillip will portray Martha Washington and share the deep and lasting love story between Martha and George Washington.

February 21*

THIS LECTURE WILL BE AT THE STONEBRIDGE RECREATION CENTER; 230 Karl Linn Drive North Chesterfield, VA 23225

Charlotte Banks Wood

Retired Teacher, Chesterfield County Schools

Chesterfield County Public Schools in the Era of Segregation

February is Black History Month and Mrs. Wood, will share her compelling stories of life in that tumultuous era. The lecture will be accompanied by a special exhibit curated by the African American History Committee of the Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia.

March 7

Martha Atkinson

Curator

Magnolia Grange House and Museum

Historic Women of Virginia

March is Women's History Month and Ms. Atkinson will share vibrant stories of notable Virginia women and how they influenced and shaped our communities.

March 21

James Thompson

History Teacher

Thomas Dale High School

History Lives! in the Halls of a Local High School

Mr. Thompson will share how he brings history to life for the students who attend Thomas Dale High, the oldest Chesterfield County high school.

