Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia to Present
“The History of Ice Cream”

Chesterfield, VA. June 30, 2023. The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia and the Chesterfield Department of Parks and Recreation will host a special program “The History of Ice Cream” at Magnolia Grange House Museum. Who doesn’t love ice cream? Join us for a brief history and an opportunity to enjoy one of America’s favorite summertime treats at the ice cream social after the program. We will conduct an informal poll to determine which flavor is the local favorite. The free event will take place Saturday, July 8 from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Reservations are required for this free presentation, as seating will be limited. To reserve a seat, please call Martha Atkinson, (804) 748-1498. Magnolia Grange House Museum is located at 10020 Iron Bridge Road in Chesterfield.

The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization established in 1981. Its mission is to research and celebrate the history of Chesterfield County by collecting, preserving, interpreting and promoting the county’s unique past for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.
