Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia to Present

Complacency is an Issue: Let's DO Something!

CHESTERFIELD, VA – The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia and Chesterfield County Department of Parks and Recreation announce a lecture, presented by Chesterfield Historical Society's African American History Committee member, Ernestine Gregory Wilson, that will focus on youth in our communities. Efforts made by past and present community leaders to promote the well-being of our youth will be highlighted, and possible solutions to current challenges our youth face will be examined. The lecture will be on Saturday, February 22, at 11 a.m., at the Chesterfield County Museum.

Registration is required for this free program. Register at Chesterfield.gov/Parks or call 804-748-1623. The County Museum is located at 6813 Mimms Loop, on the Historic 1917 Courthouse Green along Route 10/Iron Bridge Rd. in Chesterfield.

The Chesterfield Historical Society of Virginia is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization established in 1981. Its mission is to collect, preserve, interpret and promote the county's past for the education and enjoyment of present and future generations.
